

“Principles of Disinfection for Wastewater Operations”

LIVE ONLINE Workshop

In this 3 hour “Principles of Disinfection for Wastewater Operations” live online training we will discuss the basic principles of disinfection, operation and maintenance of chemical feed systems, as well as safety considerations of the various systems.

In this workshop we will discuss:

- The importance of disinfection
- Commonly applied disinfection methods such as chlorine and UV
- Equipment utilized in the disinfection process
- Safety concerns

Our 3 hour “Principles of Disinfection for Wastewater Operations” live online training will provide you with tools to successfully achieve the best quality and efficiency out of your disinfection system, meet your regulatory requirements, and have a cost-effective operation.