

Joe Kerschner

Education

Naval Nuclear Power School 1986-1989

- Completed U.S. Naval nuclear engineering training program
- Completed U.S. Naval radiochemistry and radiological controls training program
- Completed U.S. Naval classroom instruction of adult learners training program

Sacramento State University Office of Water Programs 2002-2013

- Completed Wastewater Treatment Plant Operator training program
- Completed Water Treatment Plant Operator training program
- Completed Distribution System Operator training program
- Completed Collection System Operator training program

Employment Highlights

President and Managing Instructor 2006-Present
American Water College

Water Quality Supervisor 2010-2013
Palmdale Water District

Senior Chemist 2004-2010
Central Coast Water Authority

Laboratory/Safety/Training Director 2002-2004
Operations Management International

Selected Skills, Certifications and Accomplishments

- Selected by the U.S. Navy to instruct prospective operators and chemists at the Naval Reactors Facility located within the Idaho National Engineering Laboratory
- Highly skilled in training adult learners, with over 20 years of experience
- Developed Water Treatment and Transmission Technology Certificate Program for California State University, Fresno
- Provided training and instruction for more than 10,000 water and wastewater operators throughout the United States since 2013

Past Licenses held:

- Grade 4 Water Quality Analyst Certification -AWWA
- Grade 4 Wastewater Lab Analyst Certification – CWEA

Current Licenses

- Water Operator Class A – TX
- Wastewater Operator Class C - TX