

Gerald J. Koll, A.S.

Instructor Gerald Koll is a 15-year veteran instructor at OCT Water Quality Academy and a favorite among operators. He instructs Operations, Math and Regulation classes. And, he is also sought out by operators because he is a very effective one-on-one tutor. His specialty subjects include Basic electricity, SCADA, Pumps controls, Instrumentation and Mechanical Tech and Equipment Maintenance.

Professional Preparation

- Community College of the Air Force, AS - Aircraft and Equipment Maintenance Management
- Sierra College - Mechanical Technology, AS, General Studies.
- Sacramento City College-Mechanical Technology, General Studies.
- San Bernardino Valley College-Aircraft Maintenance, General Studies.
Technical Service Classes for various systems, pumps, drives, valves, and controls.

Appointments

- 2007 - Present, Instructor OCT Academy, McClellan, California.
- 1998 - 2006, Formica Corp. Industrial Plant Electrician, mechanic
- 1988 - 1998, American Poly-Therm Co. Aerospace Plastics Manufacturing, Plant Electrician, Mechanic, Lead Man, Maintenance Foreman
- 1968 – 1988 United States Air Force (Retired) Superintendent (9 level), Aircraft Maintenance Technicians.

Products

- Overhaul Technician/Task Trainer/Certifier/Inspector: in repair/rebuild
- Plumbing Service and Inspection of common facility base services.
- Fabrication from Engineering drawings and prints.
- Facility Maintenance technician with primary responsibility for Water, Electrical, OSHA Compliance.

Synergistic Activities

- Selected at command level to perform duties as Task trainer, Command evaluator or Certifier, Command Standardization Evaluator in many venues world-wide for the Military Airlift Command. Leadership at local and command levels awarded me Meritorious Service Medal, Air Force Commendation Medals and Achievement recognition, and countless letters of recognition and recommendations.

END