

David E. Filippi, Program Co-Chair, is a member of Stoel Rives LLP. He practices in the areas of natural resources, environmental and land use law. David concentrates his practice on water rights and water quality, fish and wildlife law, and project facility siting and permitting.

Olivier Jamin, Program Co-Chair, is an attorney at Davis Wright Tremaine LLP. He counsels clients on environmental, energy, land use, and litigation matters. He advises on federal and state environmental compliance issues, as well as regulatory issues in the food and beverages industry.

Robert Annear, PhD, PE, is the owner of Annear Water Resources, LLC. He has more than 25 years of experience focused on the development and calibration of hydrodynamic and water quality models for local, state and federal agencies, law firms, and clients in the water supply sectors.

Nellie Q. Barnard is Of Counsel at Schwabe Williamson & Wyatt PC. She provides legal ethics and risk management advice to lawyers, law firms, law students, and in-house legal departments. She also represents lawyers in attorney discipline matters and character and fitness proceedings.

Phillip M. Bender is a partner at Ring Bender LLP. He represents corporate, municipal, non-profit and individual clients in all aspects of environmental, regulatory and strategic matters and in environmental and commercial litigation. He advises, negotiates and litigates issues involving water quality.

Amy Cordalis serves as General Counsel for the Yurok Tribe and is the first enrolled Yurok tribal member to hold the position. Amy is dedicated to defending and advancing self-governance for her tribe and comes from a long line of Yuroks who have fought to defend their rights and their heritage.

Kate Fitzpatrick serves as Executive Director at Deschutes River Conservancy. She has over 16 years of experience at the organization managing and directing programs to collaboratively restore streamflow in the basin. She has developed expertise in water rights, negotiations, and collaboration.

Dwight French is the Administrator of the Water Right Services Division at the Oregon Water Resources Department. The Division processes water right applications, transfers, extension of time, limited licenses, reviews Claims of Beneficial Use, and issues water right certificates.

Kimberly Grigsby is a Principal Water Resources Consultant with GSI Water Solutions, Inc. She specializes in water rights and water resources issues, and has in-depth knowledge of water resources policy, processes and procedures. Kim is an expert in conducting water rights master planning efforts.

Brent H. Hall is a Member of Hall Law, PLLC. His practice focuses on Native American treaty rights, environmental, natural resource, land use, and water rights related matters. He represents tribes in federal, state and tribal courts in protecting treaty reserved rights and resources.

Rep. Ken Helm is the State Representative for Oregon House District 34. Among his legislative duties, he serves as the Chair of the House Committee on Agriculture, Land Use, and Water and as a member of the House Committee on Environment and Natural Resources and the House Committee on Judiciary.

Geoffrey M. Huntington serves as Senior Advisor for the Oregon Governor's Office of Natural Resources. He was previously a project manager for the Department of State Lands, was executive director of the Oregon Watershed Enhancement Board and deputy director of the OWRD.

Justin T. Iverson manages the Groundwater Section of the Oregon Water Resources Department. Prior to joining the Department in 2015, he was a water resources consultant focused on groundwater development and managed aquifer recharge for public and private sector clients.

Mark J. Landauer has represented the Special Districts Association of Oregon since 2008 focusing on water and wastewater issues. He is the Executive Director of the Oregon Public Ports Association and represents the Oregon Association of Water Utilities, among others.

Sarah R. Liljefelt is Of Counsel at Dunn Carney LLP where she specializes in water law. Her practice also includes real property transactions, service-regulated and rate-regulated water utilities, special districts and municipal entities, environmental compliance, public lands, and administrative adjudications.

Merissa A. Moeller is an attorney at Stoel Rives LLP. She advises on water resources, natural resources, and land use matters. Her clients include individual landowners and developers, renewable energy facilities, agribusiness, the timber industry, wineries, municipal and agricultural water managers.

Josh Newton is a partner with Best Best & Krieger LLP. He represents clients on natural resource issues in federal and state court litigation at both the trial and appellate level. He has represented The Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation of Oregon for more than twenty years.

Rep. Mark Owens represents House District 60 in the Oregon State Legislature, serving Baker, Grant, Harney, Malheur & parts of Lake Counties. He currently serves as Vice-Chair of the House Committee on Water, and on the House Committees for Education, Energy and Environment, and Human Services.

Lauren Poor serves as Director of Government Affairs for the Oregon Farm Bureau. She is responsible for several issues, including wildfire, wildlife taxes and transportation. She advocates for and with farm bureau members at the Capitol, in the courts and within regulatory agencies.

Brian J. Posewitz is a staff attorney at WaterWatch of Oregon. He has been an attorney in Oregon since 1991 and joined WaterWatch's staff in 2015. While in private practice, he handled a variety of water-related cases for WaterWatch and private clients. He is also a former WaterWatch board member.

Daniel M. Ray is an attorney at Rosette Law LLP in Sacramento and an enrolled member of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma. He has special interests in litigation, intergovernmental affairs, indigenous nation building, environmental justice, cultural resource protection, and land reacquisition.

Steven L. Shropshire is a shareholder at Jordan Ramis PC with nearly 30 years of experience in natural resources and environmental law. Steve focuses much of his work on issues pertaining to water rights, state and federal water policy, water quality issues, and the Endangered Species Act.

Paul S. Simmons is Executive Director and Counsel for the Klamath Water User Association. He is also an attorney in the law firm of Somach Simmons & Dunn in Sacramento, California. He specializes in the areas of water, natural resources and environmental law and represents clients in several states.

Marika E. Sitz is an attorney at Jordan Ramis PC. She helps clients with all manner of water rights issues, navigate the Oregon water rights system, and understand water-related environmental concerns at the state and federal levels. She uses collaboration to strategically approach problems and identify solutions.

Lindsay Thane is a shareholder at Schwabe Williamson & Wyatt PC. She helps individuals and businesses resolve disputes and navigate permitting processes through strategic and substantive counsel on water rights, natural resources, and environmental issues.