

Company name:

*Huber Technology, Inc.
Glenwood, Iowa*

Number of years with company:

3 Years

Education:

- Sacramento State Wastewater Treatment Course*
- Advanced Wastewater Course*
- High School Diploma*

Certifications:

- Wastewater Treatment Operator Class 1*
- Lockout/Tagout*
- Workplace Hazardous Materials Confined Space*
- FEMA Emergency Management Certified*
- SCBA Trained & Qualified*
- Lift truck Certified*
- Chlorine Emergency Response Trained*

Nicolas Hall

Sr. Field Service Specialist

Qualifications:

Nicolas Hall has been in the water and waste industry for over 10 years. He is a Sr. Field Service Specialist who has extensive experience in Wastewater and Water Reclamation Facilities. As the Field Service Specialist, he is committed to job site safety, quality workmanship that conforms to plans and specifications and achieving successful completion of projects on time.

Experience:

Huber Technology, Inc. – Sr. Field Service Specialist, Savannah, Georgia

2020 - present

Performs all aspects of service functions including startups, repairs, troubleshooting, training, for all North America deliveries of Huber Technology equipment. Training in the field by factory trained experts from Berching Germany, training in the Factory Service Facility in Denver, NC and years of field experience have well prepared this Field Specialist. Trained on most types of Sludge Equipment; Sludge Screens; Q-Press's; Sludge Dryers and cleaning systems and various other systems encountered in training and site visits.

City of Savannah WWTP 2012-2020 – Plant Supervisor

Responsible for the proper daily operation of the wastewater treatment plant including but not limited to: Dewatering and sludge drying facility including ancillary equipment. Maintain and operate all equipment at the WWTP.