About AWWA

Who We Are

The American Water Works Association is an international, nonprofit, scientific and educational society dedicated to providing total water solutions assuring the effective management of water. Founded in 1881, the Association is the largest organization of water supply professionals in the world.

Our membership includes over 4,300 utilities that supply roughly 80 percent of the nation's drinking water and treat almost half of the nation's wastewater. Our 51,000 total members represent the full spectrum of the water community: public water and wastewater systems, environmental advocates, scientists, academicians, and others who hold a genuine interest in water, our most important resource.

What we Do

What we do:

- Offer education to water professionals
- Advocate for safe and sustainable water
- Collect and share knowledge
- Create volunteering opportunities

AWWA provides training opportunities, which are needed to help maintain drinking water and wastewater operator licensing. In order to provide these training opportunities to drinking water and wastewater operators at all levels, AWWA provides many conferences & training opportunities, both in-person and using on-line tools.
