The Knowledge Checkpoints are interactive questions that are disbursed throughout the course.   The user is not permitted to move forward with the lecture without participating. An activity is offered every 300 to 500 spoken words.