

we track attendance during our live online classes via chat, voice, or video. The instructor and / or moderator, verifies attendance of all attendees at least once per hour. The information is electronically documented and available upon request.