

Webinar Attendance Tracking

All webinar attendance is tracked automatically by an automated process in the webinar hosting platform.

Attendees are required to enroll in webinars through the online platform.

All webinars contain modules that are marked complete as attendees finish them.

Live webinars track attendee time in the session and automatically record this data to the webinar platform.

Certificates are issued to all attendees automatically by the platform upon completion of all modules and meeting all time requirements.