

Edd Schofield Bio

Edd is a graduate of California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo, where he earned a B.S. in Business Marketing with a minor in Mechanical Engineering. While attending college, he worked in the oilfield on a production rig for Getty Oil, gaining valuable field experience.

Upon graduation in 1979, he was recruited by Baker Hughes as a Technical Sales Engineer for Oilfield Completions, where he supervised cementing, acidizing, and hydraulic fracturing operations both onshore and offshore across the West Coast and Alaska.

In 1998, Edd joined Johnson Screens as a Regional Sales Representative. With over 45 years of combined experience in the Oil & Gas and Water Well industries, he has developed extensive expertise in well design, construction, operations, and maintenance—primarily across the Southwestern United States.

Recently promoted to Technical Sales Manager, Edd now oversees Johnson Screens' complete chemical product line.
