Timeline: four one hour webinars, one day a week from 12:00 PM to 1:00 PM
Agenda: attached are the PowerPoints for the first two webinars showing topics covered. We are currently working on the second two and can send them as soon as they are completed.
Method of tracking audience: Zoom meeting attendance is tracked and can be confirmed after the meeting. There currently is no way to track if they watch the recorded video after the live airing.
Synopsis:

Was your upcoming water law conference cancelled? Or are you itching to learn more about Oregon water law, but could never attend one of Schroeder Law Offices speaking events? Stuck inside due to Covid-19 orders? You're in luck! Laura Schroeder will be offering a series of free webinars this spring covering a wide range of water law topics on our website.

The current schedule will include:

- How to React to a "Red Tag" From the Water Master Shutting Off Your Water Righted Diversion? (April 15, 2020): This webinar will discuss the role of watermasters, the rules they enforce, and how to challenge incorrect watermaster decisions. You can register to attend this free webinar here.
- What to Do When You Receive a Notice of Cancellation on Your Water Right? (April 22, 2020): This webinar covers the grounds for cancellation used by the Oregon Water Resources Department, how a cancellation is initiated, and how to protect your water rights of use! You can register to attend this free webinar here.
- What Options Are Available When Your Receive Notice Your Well Construction is Non-compliant? (April 29, 2020): This webinar will review Oregon Water Resources Department and Oregon Health Authority rules regarding well construction, why well construction matters to water rights of use, and options to resolve the problems.
- How to Prepare a Response to a Notice of Violation Concerning Illegal Water Use? (May 6, 2020): This webinar provides an overview of the appeal process for challenging a notice of violation, what tools are available, and how the process works.