

Water Compliance and Enforcement

Developed January, 2019

OUTLINE / COURSE DESCRIPTION

.2 CEUs/2 PDHs/2 Contact Hours

In the wake of the Flint, Michigan drinking water crisis, as well as a series of less prominent cases, the federal government has recommitted its enforcement and compliance resources to targeting allegations of misconduct in the water sector. This course is designed to teach operators and managers the basic regulatory framework for water compliance (both drinking and wastewater) as well as the key areas of focus of government regulators, and strategies for those in the water sector to help maximize compliance and minimize the possibility of enforcement scrutiny. The course modules include:

Module 1: Understanding the Rules of the Road

Module 2: How Government Works to Ensure Compliance

Module 3: Understanding Enforcement

Module 4: Best Practices

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Identify the key obligations needed ensure compliance with water regulations
- Recognize the government's compliance priorities in the water sector and implications of enforcement
- Implement key strategies to ensure compliance and avoid enforcement

DEVELOPMENT AUTHOR / SPEAKER BIO

Doug Parker

President, E&W Strategies

1455 Pennsylvania Ave, NW, Suite 400,

Washington, D.C. 20004

Doug.Parker@earthandwatergroup.com

Mr. Parker leads E&W Strategies, a consulting firm that is part of the Earth and Water Group which provides high quality, cost-effective environmental solutions to business and governments through an integrated team of highly skilled and experienced professionals. E&W Strategies' partners with Earth and Water Law to serve clients ranging from local governments and ad hoc groups to corporate startups and multinational corporations.

- Georgetown University, MA, Public Policy. Washington, DC (1991)
- Colby College, BA, History. Waterville, ME (1986)
- Graduate of Federal Executive Institute (2010)
- Graduate of Federal Law Enforcement Training Center (FLETC) Academy (1993)
- Multiple management and advanced investigative courses

COURSE METHODOLOGY

This is a Self-paced course. Self-paced courses are delivered exclusively online and progress is driven solely by the student. This format allows the student to move through course content at the student's own pace, taking into consideration the individual's knowledge level and capacity. Self-paced courses can be completed anytime during a 90-day period after registration. These courses may include presentations, pre-recorded audio, supporting articles, online learning activities, videos, quizzes, and evaluations.