

David E. Filippi, Program Co-Chair, is a member of Stoel Rives LLP. He concentrates his practice on water rights and water quality, fish and wildlife law, and project facility siting and permitting.

Richard M. Glick, Program Co-Chair, practices water and environmental law at Davis Wright Tremaine LLP. He represents individual and corporate farms, irrigation districts and municipal water utilities.

John J. Audley is a consultant to the Oregon Business Council and the Principal of John Audley Consulting. He spent 15 years working in international trade and environmental policy.

Nellie Q. Barnard is an attorney at Holland & Knight LLP. She focuses on advising lawyers, law firms and corporate legal departments on legal ethics and professional responsibility matters.

Bruce Brody-Heine, RG, LHG, CWRE, is a Principal Hydrogeologist for GSI Water Solutions, Inc. He helps clients on a range of groundwater, water rights, and environmental management challenges.

Thomas M. Byler is the Director of the Oregon Water Resources Department. Prior to this role, he served nine years as the Executive Director of the Oregon Watershed Enhancement Board.

Direlle R. Calica serves the Affiliated Tribes of Northwest Indians as an Energy & Water Policy Coordinator. She has extensive experience with hydro-system operations and hydro-power issues.

Dominic M. Carollo is a partner with Yockim Carollo LLP, representing industries, businesses, landowners & local governments with relationships to the timber, agriculture, water and mining sectors.

J.R. Cook is the Director of Northeast Oregon Water Association. He has over a decade of experience in water policy and an extensive knowledge of economic and natural resources issues in Eastern Oregon.

Mary Anne Cooper is the Vice President of Public Policy at the Oregon Farm Bureau. She represents the Bureau on legal issues and works with state and federal agencies on water quality and supply issues.

Beth S. Ginsberg is a partner with Stoel Rives LLP. For over 30 years, she has litigated natural resource, wildlife and environmental cases and counseled on regulatory compliance and permitting issues.

Patti Goldman is the Managing Attorney of the Northwest Office of Earthjustice. She has extensive experience in the ESA and has litigated cases to protect orcas, salmon, and Northwest forests.

Justin Green is the Water Quality Division Administrator for the Oregon Dept. of Environmental Quality. He focuses on ensuring statewide quality/consistency and finding solutions to complex problems.

Elizabeth E. Howard, a shareholder at Schwabe Williamson & Wyatt PC, heads the Real Estate, Land Use & Environmental Law Dept. She focuses on water rights, wetlands, water quality & agricultural law.

Olivier Jamin is an attorney at Davis Wright Tremaine LLP. He provides legal advice to clients on federal and state environmental compliance issues, energy, land use, and litigation matters.

Sarah Liljefelt is an attorney at Schroeder Law Offices PC. Her areas of practice include water rights due diligence review, permitting, extensions, transfers, mitigation, cancellation; and real property issues.

Matthew A. Love is a partner at Van Ness Feldman LLP. He has over 20 years' experience focusing on permitting and litigation matters involving federal and state natural resource and environmental law.

Kirk B. Maag co-leads the Agribusiness, Food, and Beverage Team at Stoel Rives LLP and has deep roots in Oregon agriculture. He grew up working on his family's irrigated farm and feedlot in eastern Oregon.

Merissa A. Moeller is an attorney at Stoel Rives LLP. She advises clients on water resource development, water rights, water quality permitting and certifications, natural resources, and land use matters.

Laurie Rule is a Senior Attorney at Advocates for the West, a public interest nonprofit environmental law firm. She manages cases protecting public lands and wildlife in Oregon, California, and Idaho.

Tracy Rutten serves as an Intergovernmental Relations Associate for the League of Oregon Cities, advocating for water/quality, energy, environmental issues, solid waste, recycling & public contracting.

Steven L. Shropshire is a shareholder at Jordan Ramis PC. Much of his work is on issues pertaining to water rights, state and federal water policy, water quality issues, and the Endangered Species Act.

Mary Lou Soccia is the Columbia River Coordinator for the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Region 10. She leads the Columbia River Toxics Reduction Strategy and the Working Group.

Adam Sussman is a Principal Water Resources Consultant for GSI Water Solutions, Inc. and leads the water rights & resources practice. He is an expert in state water rights process, policy and procedures.

Trisha Thompson is a litigation attorney at Holland & Knight LLP, where her practice focuses on ethics and risk management for law firms and lawyers, as well as commercial and employment litigation.