

Cornell Virtual Pump School Tracking

Tracking of the course is done through Acelevents—with individualized log-in we can tell how long an attendee participates in the session, and if they go back and re-watch a session (we would only give credit once). We will also have a quiz session at the end to test knowledge. We will send out an e-mail a week out and day before asking participants for the OESAC operator numbers, and will compile the list.