

we require registration so we have our roster of attendees and then staff check off their attendance upon arrival to let them into the online course. We require all participants have their name properly listed in the course and both audio and video are available for each attendee. After the course, we receive a report showing all those that attended including time spent in the online course to make sure they were there for the duration of the program.