

Coagulation and Flocculation

Fee: $30.

Training Contact Hours: 3

Description: Coagulation and Flocculation is a course that focuses on the critical role that particle combining and mixing play in the surface water treatment process and how necessary they are in producing safe drinking water that meets Public Health and US Environmental Protection Agency requirements.

Learning objectives: Students shall show knowledge of how coagulation and flocculation are important steps in the water treatment process.

WT3 – Coagulation and Flocculation
Section	Minutes
Coagulation & Flocculation introduction video1	5
What is coagulation? section1- 53 slides	106
Coagulation video2	4
Effectiveness of Coagulation section2- 25 slides	50
Conclusion video3	4
navigation 10m	10
questions x 1m	3
Total minutes	182
Contact Hours	3.0

